Liabilities & other Terms

- 4.1 Our insurance covers our legal liabilities.
- 4.2 Vehicles and contents are left at the owners risk whilst the vehicle is parked. Our insurance only covers whilst moving your car from the airport to our compound or for any other purpose. Whilst your vehicle is parked with us you must rely on your own vehicle insurance policy.
- 4.3 Claims for damage will not be considered unless reported to our staff immediately on the return of the vehicle at the terminal and written confirmation is obtained to confirm damage. You should take pictures of your vehicle and mileage before dropping it off, we recommend taking 20 pictures to cover all sides and angles . No claims will be accepted if pictures are not taken prior so it is essential customers take their own images irrespective of our drivers actions. Complaint form must be completed in full for the complaint to be registered. No complaint will be considered once the driver has handed over the keys and left you with your key. Please check your vehicle thoroughly before accepting your keys.
- 4.4 We accept no liability for mechanical, structural and electrical failure of any part of your vehicle including windscreens, glass, tyres and alloys however caused. Please note any dash cam installed will be unplugged upon collection of the vehicle due to security reasons.

- 4.5 We accept no liability for any loss or damage whatsoever caused unless proved to be caused by the negligence of our employees.
- 4.6 Your vehicle must be taxed and comply with the road traffic act 1988. This is deemed by us to case for the whole duration while the vehicle is in our possession. Any liabilities incurred by our company as a result of the client's vehicle not complying with the Road Traffic Act, the customer will be held responsible for all costs/liabilities incurred by the company.
- 4.7 We accept no liability for any faulty keys, alarm fobs, house or other keys left on the key ring. In the event of vehicles not starting, we reserve the right to charge for our time. Only the keys should be given to us.
- 4.8 In the event that the car acquires a puncture (including slow punctures) we reserve the right to charge either to inflate the tyre or for changing the tyre.
- 4.9 In the event that the vehicles do not start due to a flat battery, we reserve to charge for our time in attempting to start the vehicle. We will not be held responsible for any consequences that may result as a direct result of us having to jump start your vehicle.
- 4.10 In the event we have to pick you up from the terminal building, due to mechanical failure of your vehicle, we reserve the right to charge for this and any associated costs that may incur.
- 4.11 We require the customer to have the spare key for their vehicle, which is required to be taken with the customer. In case the spare key is required at any time, customers must carry the spare key with them.
- 4.12 During certain busy periods or lengthy periods of stay, your car may be parked in one of our larger compounds which could be up to 50 miles (one way), depending which terminal you have dropped your vehicle off and they might not be equipped with CCTV cameras and during certain periods we might park the vehicle in a public facility.
- 4.13 In the event that your vehicle needs to be repaired, it must be carried out by our own approved organisation. It will be your responsibility to deliver and collect the car from there at no cost to ourselves. We will not agree or authorise any works to be carried out by dealerships even in the event vehicle forgoing its warranty.
- 4.14 On certain occasions some of the bookings are fulfilled by our sister companies.
- 4.15 In the event of a lost car key we reserve the right to use our own locksmith.
